Hail To P. S. C.

Reba M. Lowry, 1954

Ira Pate Lowry, 1954.

Where Caro-Li-na's Loft-y Pine trees Pierce the South-ern blue,

Proud-ly stands our AL-ma Ma-ter Cou-ra-geous, strong and true,

Black and gold float on for-ev-er, Sym-bol of Loy-al ty,

Pem-broke State, our AL-ma Ma-ter, Hail to P. S. C.!

| 2. Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Guardian of our youth
Ever lead thy children onward
Into light and truth;
Unborn youth will take our places
To praise thee endlessly,
Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
Hail to P.S.C.! | 3. 'Neath thy ever verdant pine trees
We rally to thy call,
Ever loyal sons and daughters-
Ambassadors, we all-
Bound by ties of love and service
Friendship and loyalty,
Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
Hail to P.S.C.! | 4. Raise the chorus, blend the voices,
Let the echoes ring
To our loving foster parent
Loudly praises sing;
Swell the chorus 'till it reaches
On through eternity
Pembroke State, our Alma Mater,
Hail to P.S.C.! |

Faith In Action

As I study, fellowship, and enjoy the extracurricular activities here at Pembroke State College, I am deeply impressed by the surroundings--a beautiful symbol of educational progress which constitutes the heart and pride of our fine community and surely portrays the faith of our pioneer fathers down through our great leaders of today.

From the day in 1887 when an act was passed providing for the establishment of a normal school in Robeson county, with faith and prayer our pioneers began work.

Many people thought the act to be a trap instead of a means of advancement; however, with money scarce, with apposition on every hand, and with few really interested in education, a subscription for five hundred dollars was raised. One acre of land near Pates, N. C. was purchased and on this land a two-story wood building was erected. Professor William L. Moore, a man of great faith, not only gave the fabulous sum of two hundred dollars in cash toward the erection of this building, but he also stopped his work in order to render his services in the interest of the school.

In answer to faith and hard work, the door to the infant Pembroke State College was opened in the fall of 1887 with fifteen students enrolled and Professor Moore acting as principal and teacher.

In 1909 Pembroke State College voted a new home in Pembroke and in 1921, the legislature appropriated 75,000 dollars toward the erection of what is now Old Main. With summer school now available, students graduated almost every year and in turn spread the gospel of education.

Thus through faith, Pembroke State College grew and grew---volumes in the library increased, buildings were added, and the curriculum broadened under the able leadership of Hiden, Jones, O. R. Sampson, D. F. Lowry, and Dr. R. D. Wellons-- to name only a few, until we have reached an important milestone in her history. Here we pause to take off our hats to one whose faith is limitless. He is none other than our own--Dr. Walter J. Gale, who has spent long hours and trodden paths smooth in every direction where assistance can be secured. During his short administration many changes have taken place: a new cafeteria, a new dormitory, and paved parking space. He has also presented a long time building program and there has been a tremendous increase in the student body.

Yes, it is with gratitude that we look to each of these who had the faith and acted to provide us with this wonderful opportunity to prepare ourselves to be, and I quote, "Fully capable and qualified to take our place in society" unquote.

Many said "it can't be done" but they did it!

Even Laraine was excited when her father came to make pictures at the Miss P.S.C. Coronation.

ELMER HUNT

Pembroke Photographer

Thank you, Elmer, for taking, developing, and enlarging the majority of our pictures. Without your assistance and kind co-operation, the 1962 INDIANHEAD would have been impossible. Many long hours you have devoted to us this year. We are quite appreciative.

Thank you, Mr. George Millsaps of Holyfield studios for your splendid co-operation in the making of the underclassmen pictures.

Thank you, Mr. Duke for having contributed much of your valuable time in the assistance of Laroine in the student photography.

FRANCIS LAVERGNE JOHNSON

Professional Photographer

Thank you, Laverne, for the excellent service which you have rendered in making and delivering individual pictures and the special attention which you gave to each one. It has now become a tradition that we greet you on our campus each fall. We look forward to your coming.
